The Interior Journal Popularity Contest, like all huge affairs, is slow in launching, but gathers speed from day to day and will soon be swinging along in fine style.

The list grows steadily each day as more and more young ladies make up their minds that their chances are as good as any one already in the list, and they proceed to get a pair of scissors, clip out the nomination blank and then send it to the contest department.

Then they come in for a subscription book or have one mailed to them and get busy. That's about all there is to it. Those who realize the fact and get a start at once, before the other candidates wake up will be the ones who will wear the smile that won't wear off when the contest is over. There is not a candidate in the race whose lead cannot be overcome by a few minutes work among your friends.

Although the contest man has been explaining the details of the contest and telling them about it in the paper, there are still a number of people who do not seem to understand it. For the benefit of these people, we give a number of questions which have been asked during the last week and the answers to same. Should there be anything else that is not fully understood, write for further details.

1. AM I ONLY ALLOWED TO SECURE SUBSCRIPTIONS IN MY OWN DISTRICT? No, you and your friends may secure subscriptions from anyone, anywhere in the United States.

2. HOW CAN I GET STARTED IN THE CONTEST? Clip out, fill in, and send the nomination blank to the contest department. A subscription receipt book and other printed matter will then be sent you. Then see your friends and acquaintances and get them to save their votes and subscriptions for you.

3. HOW DO I SECURE VOTES? Votes may be clipped from the paper but the best and quickest way is to secure subscriptions to the Interior Journal and get the vote certificates for them sent faster.

4. HOW DO I SECURE VOTE CERTIFICATES? They are issued on subscriptions to the Interior Journal. Whenever you secure subscriptions we issue you a vote certificate for a certain number of votes according to the length of the subscription, and mail same back to you. These vote certificates are good at any time up to the close of the contest and may be mailed and published whenever you choose. They will not be added to your standing in the paper until you send them in with the request that they be mailed and published.

5. SHALL I SEND IN SUBSCRIPTIONS AS SOON AS I RECEIVE THEM? Yes, then we can get the paper started to the subscriber and he will clip and save the votes from the paper for you.

6. WHEN I SEND SUBSCRIPTIONS TO ALL I SEND SUBSCRIPTIONS TO? Address all nominations and communications to the Contest Manager, care of the Interior Journal, Stanford, Ky. Have checks, money orders, etc., made payable to the Interior Journal.

7. HOW MANY DISTRICTS ARE THERE? 2 districts, one in Lincoln county, and one in the territory of the contest office.

8. MAY I TRANSFER MY BALLOTS TO MY FRIENDS IF I DO NOT CARE TO COMPETE? No, once issued, vote ballots or certificates are absolutely non-transferable. If you drop out after you have got started, you lose all votes that are to your credit.

9. WHEN I GET A SUBSCRIPTION, DO I SEND THE MONEY TO THE INTERIOR JOURNAL? Yes, always collect the money for the subscriptions. Vote certificates will not be issued unless the money is included with the name and address of the subscriber. Enclose center part of your contest subscription receipt when sending in the money. If you have no receipt book, write the Contest Department.

Farmers' Union Elects Officers.

Formal organization was perfected at the meeting of the Farmers' Union here Saturday, and an enthusiastic membership has been enrolled, which promises big things for this body which has done so much for the good of the farmers. Strong men were placed at the head of affairs, and the work of extending its scope and continuing the organization into every part of the county will be pushed. Prof. W. M. Martin is making strong speeches all over the county in the cause, and doing much good. The list of officers chosen for the first year is as follows:

President—R. E. Gaines.
V-President—J. Nevin Carter.
Secretary-Treasurer—J. M. Pettus.
Conductor—S. T. Curtis.
Chaplain—Ed Hubbard.
Doorkeeper—J. Phillips.

Ten new bishops have been decided on at the Methodist General Conference in session at Indianapolis.

JOE WARNER PROVES HIMSELF A HERO

14-Year-old Lad Jumps Into Raging Creek And Saves Playmate From Drowning.

The heroism displayed by Joe Warner, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Warner, of this city, when he rescued Joe Grimes, the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Grimes, from a watery grave in Logan's creek last Saturday, is being warmly commended on all sides, and friends of the young man say his net should be brought to the attention of the Carnegie Hero Commission and a medal for heroism awarded him.

Joe Warner, Joe Grimes and Jas. Tribble the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tribble, started to Dix River in a light buggy last Saturday to go fishing. When the lads came to Logan's Creek, on the Dudderar's Mill pike, they found the stream greatly swollen by the hard rains. They started to cross at the ford, however. Midway of the stream, the force of the current became too strong for the horse and all began to go down stream. Seeing the great danger they were in, the Warner and Grimes boy jumped from the buggy and after a hard fight managed to swim to shore and attempted to get the horse and buggy out, the Grimes boy still being in the water, as he was unable to swim.

Seeing that their efforts were unavailing the Grimes lad caught hold of the lines and leaped into the turbulent stream. He tried to hold himself up with the lines. Meanwhile the current was fast carrying the horse and buggy down, and it seemed that the little fellow would soon be washed loose from his scanty support and drowned. Seeing the predicament, Joe Warner, manfully leaped into the stream again, and though he had to fight hard to get to the Grimes lad in the center of the current he reached him. Then came the struggle, for when Grimes turned loose the lines to grab his rescuer, he became a dead weight on little Warner, who is not a very large or strong lad for his years. He took one hand of Grimes, however, and headed bravely for shore, swimming with the other hand. It was a hard, long pull, but he succeeded, in getting Joe Grimes safely ashore, though he was himself almost exhausted by the great struggle he had to make to save his playmate's life.

The Warner lad has been highly praised for his courage in venturing back into the swift stream after his companion who was in such great danger, and the gallant fight he successfully made to save him. Warner is a member of the local company of Boy Scouts and his Scoutmaster and other members are very proud of his achievement.

The horse and buggy were finally washed ashore several hundred yards down the stream, and the boys were compelled to take down a length of fence to get them to the road again.

STAND BY McCREARY.

Local Democrats Solid For His Friends In Organization.

Since there is objection to the solid instruction of Kentucky's delegates to the national democratic convention, for Champ Clark, the only fight before the state convention which meets in Louisville is the matter of organization. The question is whether the friends of Gov. McCreary and former Gov. Beckham shall remain in control of the state organization, or whether Editor Henry Watterson, Col. John H. Whallen, Campbell Cantrill, Billy Klair and others of the Louisville crowd shall control.

Friends of Gov. McCreary will offer the name of Rufus Van Sant, who managed the campaign last year when McCreary was elected by 30,000 majority, for chairman of the state committee, while the Whallen crowd will offer John M. Stevenson, of Winchester, for chairman.

Lincoln county democrats will undoubtedly be practically solid for McCreary and his friends, and there are many who favor instructing the local delegation which will go to the state convention to vote for McCreary's friends all down the line, as well as instructing for Champ Clark for president.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS THE K. P. MINSTRELS

Black Face Comedians Put on Splendid "Home Talent" Show To Boost The Fair.

One of the largest crowds seen in the Stanford opera house in a long time, enjoyed the K. of P. minstrels Friday night. The presentation was strictly a "home-made" affair and enjoyed all the more for that reason. The boys had worked hard, and put on a play which did them great credit and pleased everyone who was present. The jokes were all of a local nature and made a big hit with the audience. The entertainment was promoted primarily with the object of boosting the K. of P. fair which will be held here August 20, 21 and 22 and there is no doubt but that it accomplished its purpose well.

Several first-class black face comedians were developed during the evening. As end men Mack Fisher and John Fields were screams, while the other Bones, John Engleman and Milt, J. C. Reynolds, were right there with the goods.

Some great work in the musical line was pulled with solos by Ed Ballard, Walter Singleton, Marshall Stone and J. W. Ireland and a chorus of the songsters. As buck and wing dancers W. M. Dunnean, Howard Newland, George Rankin, and Ed Brady were simply in a class to themselves. Mr. Rankin brought down the house when he appeared as a colored "mammy" later in the scenes. Little Ed Brady's monologue, and a dance with Mr. Patrick accompanying him on the banjo was hard to beat.

Some pretty work was shown after the opener, when Miss Ella May Saunders gave a very graceful posing of "America," to piano accompaniment by Miss Patrick and violin accompaniment by Mrs. Bromley, who also rendered a violin solo.

Mack Fisher's oration upon the "Whiteness of the How," was especially illuminating and enjoyable, and the whole thing closed with a laughable ragtime scene which brought down the house. Judge J. N. Menefee, Jr., made an admirable intercomedian and kept things moving at all times.

A large number of K. P.'s from surrounding towns came over to see the show, and everyone seemed to enjoy it greatly. There is talk of making it an annual event.

Helm Believes Clark a Winner

Congressman Harvey Helm returned home from Washington Sunday, where he has been busily engaged for the past several months. He will devote some little time now to his campaign for renomination and reelection, both of which he and his friends are confident of winning. Mr. Helm is an enthusiastic Champ Clark man and believes that the Speaker is a sure winner. He is glad to see Kentucky in line for Clark and says that a great national victory is certain in November with Clark as the party's standard bearer.

Here Advertising Charlie White-Moon

Lee W. Zweydoft, of Louisville, representing the celebrated Cow-Boy Herbalist Charlie White-Moon, whose famous remedies are already well known in this section of the state, was in town Monday mixing with the court day crowd and distributing advertising matter for the big "Medicine Man". Arrangements will soon be made for the handling of the celebrated Indian remedies in local drug stores, and thus save local sufferers the trouble of sending to Louisville for the medicine.

A "Jack the Ripper" is at work in Atlanta.

ROBBERS AGAIN VISIT THE POSTOFFICE

Small Amount of Money Secured and Burglars, as Usual, Forget to Leave their Cards.

For the third time within a few years, the Stanford postoffice was entered by burglars last Friday night and a sum of money taken from the cash drawer. The robbers were unable on this occasion to enter the safe, and so did not obtain a larger sum which was inside. It is supposed that he or they must have been frightened away before completing work on safe. About $15 in money was taken from the cash drawer, and as usual no clue was left by which the midnight visitors might be discovered.

Entrance was obtained into the postoffice this time, by prizing out one of the iron bars which was supposed to protect the windows in the rear. This has become a very popular method of gaining entrance to the storerooms which the enterprising craftsmen who operate in Stanford at their pleasure, desire to relieve of their surplus cash.

Opening the lower window, the burglars were in the cellar but then had the trouble of cutting out part of the doorway which opens from the stairs coming up from the cellar to the postoffice room proper. They bored around the lock, and made a hole large enough to thrust a hand through, and then opened the door.

After tapping the till, a hole was drilled near the combination on the safe, and shot with dynamite. Another hole was drilled near the edge of the safe door, but did not seem to work, and about this stage of the proceedings something must have frightened the burglars off, for no further effort seems to have been made to force open the safe door.

Postmaster Florence is inclined to believe that the robbers were at work while the K. of P. minstrels were being presented in the opera house above, early in the evening.

Several persons testify to have heard a loud noise as of an explosion but none thought to investigate. However, it seems hardly probable that the burglars would care to take a chance of getting caught at their work so early in the evening, especially with a crowd going and coming to and from the opera house most of the time.

This is the fourth burglary in Stanford this year, which is undoubtedly going some in a space of less than five months. So far no clue has been obtained to the identity of any of the criminals, though the opinion seems to prevail that it is "local talent" at work. In each case, the robber was wise enough to look only for money, so that only the slightest clues are left by which he might be traced.

To Put on Third at Danville.

The degree team from Diadem Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will go to Danville to-night for the purpose of putting on the third degree for the lodge there, and incidentally doing some boosting for the big K. of P. Fair which will be held here the latter part of August. There are few better degree teams in the state than that of the local lodge and they will show the Boyle county boys some mighty clever work.

Rev. Huey to Leave Somerset

Rev. O. M. Huey, of Somerset, has accepted the call to the pastorate in the Great Crossings Baptist church in Scott county and besides his duties as its minister, he will do some field work for Georgetown College, for which he is peculiarly adapted. He is a graduate of the college. Mr. Huey will succeed Rev. E. M. Harris, who left recently for West Virginia.
